Pace of iCo Unmatched by Biotech Competitors

It was only a few short months ago that Andrew Rae and John Clement launched their latest biotech company iCo Therapeutics Inc. from a table at Starbucks.

In less than a year they have catapulted from their coffee shop headquarters in downtown Vancouver and more importantly, inked their first deal to take an oncology drug and repurpose it to treat diabetes-related blindness and other diseases.

iCo Therapeutics was featured in the Vancouver Sun on February 8, 2006. The story was covered by Vancouver Sun writer Gillian Shaw.
